3. Adherence to Copyright Patent Laws

- a) The display of products which infringe others' intellectual property rights is strictly prohibited:
To safeguard intellectual property rights, it is strictly forbidden to display products infringing the patent rights, trademarks, copyrights, and business secrets of others.

Any exhibitor found to be displaying products determined by a court of law to be infringing the intellectual property rights of others shall be subject to immediate termination of the display of all its products and confiscation of the paid exhibition fees and shall be barred from participating in the next session of the exhibition.

In the event that an exhibitor is reported during the exhibition to be displaying products infringing the intellectual property rights of others and the reporting party meets one of the following requirements, display of the said products shall be terminated immediately.

- (1) A victim of intellectual property rights infringement as determined by the court of first instance.
- (2) A victim of intellectual property rights infringement as determined by the copyright deliberation and reconciliation commission.
- (3) A holder of an authentication report from a professional institution authenticating the object that may be infringing patent rights with prior or concurrent notice to the manufacturer, importer, or dealer with suspected infringement acts requesting clearance of the infringing object. In the event that the aforementioned clearance notice has not been sent, but prior rights relief procedures have been taken or reasonable and possible attention has been paid or notice is objectively impossible or there is substantial evidence that the prospective notice recipient is a ware of the infringement dispute, the clearance notice will be considered to have been sent.

In the event that TAITRA is involved in a lawsuit or suffers other damages as a result of the violation, the exhibitor shall be solely responsible for compensation.

- b) "It is strictly forbidden to display products in violation of applicable laws such as the Civil Law, Consumer Protection Act, Fair Trade Act, Commodity Labeling Act, Commodity Inspection Act and Food Hygiene Management Law. In the event that TAITRA is involved in a lawsuit or suffers other damages as a result of the violation, the exhibitor shall be solely responsible for compensation.

4. Space assignment & Unoccupied Space

- a) Show Management will determine number and location of booths assigned to each Exhibitor in the manner Show Management deems appropriate.
- b) Show Management reserves the right, should any Exhibitors' space remain unoccupied on the opening day without reasonable cause, to assign the said space to another exhibitor, or use the said space in any other manner deemed suitable.

5. Sub-letting of Space

- b) The Show Management reserves the right to restrict exhibits to a minimum noise level. Sound volume from booths must not exceed 85 dB.
- c) The Show Management reserves the right to reject exhibits or to stop the exhibition on the exhibitor's account, if he fails to lower the noise level or to resolve matters regarding contamination such as dust, smog, unpleasant odors, the emission of stimulating gases, volatile organic chemicals, or other pollutants.

14. Interruptions and / or Disruptions of the Exhibition

Exhibitors shall not cause interruptions and/or disruptions of the exhibition, which result in the protest or commotion at their booth(s), either inside or outside the showground, during the exhibition or during move-in and move-out. If and when such interruptions and/or disruptions influence the order of the exhibition or public image of the Show, and the exhibitor involved or those concerned are unable to deal effectively with such issues, the exhibitor understands and agrees that the Management can terminate the exhibition agreement and immediately shut down the booth(s) without compensation or liability. The exhibitor shall be required to indemnify the Management against any and all claims, liabilities, costs and expenses arising from such interruptions and/or disruptions thereof.

15. Supplementary Clauses

- a) Whenever necessary, the Show Management shall have the right to issue supplementary regulations in addition to those indicated in the Terms and Regulations for Participation to ensure the smooth management of the Exhibition.
- b) Any additional written regulations shall form part of the Terms and Regulations for Participation and shall be binding on exhibitors.
- c) In the event of any occurrences not foreseen in this manual, the decision of the organizer shall be final.
